Hi Dan,

We are in receipt of Ms. Case and Ms. Koslow's July 16 document productions. On our initial scan of the productions, we noticed certain communications produced by Ms. Case and Ms. Koslow included attorneys for the Wayfarer Parties. We could not immediately determine whether these communications may be subject to any form of privilege. However, out of an abundance of caution, we promptly stopped our review. Please confirm that these documents were not inadvertently produced and that it is your position that the documents are not protected by any form of privilege. In the meantime, please contact us so that we can discuss a manner for returning the identified documents pursuant to the parties' ESI stipulation, which we are doing without waiving any argument that the documents are not protected by any privilege and are subject to production. Please note that we are simultaneously providing notice to the Wayfarer Parties.

Best,
Kristin
